

Developing leadership, fostering collaboration and building perspective through external communities

Theme: Professional Development PD02

Harper Forbes, People and Product Leader, Roche Canada
harper.forbes@roche.com

28-February-2024

Table of contents

Agenda

Personal Journey

External Communities

Development Opportunities

The opinions expressed in this presentation and on the following slides are solely those of the presenter and not necessarily those of Roche/Genentech

Personal Journey PHUSE

2018

2019

2022

2023

2024

5 Leadership Themes

Nicole Pollard
Leading Virtually:
Share success stories and challenges with the shift to working virtually and how to optimize future engagement

Harper Forbes
Leadership in Agile Organizations:
Discuss best practices for empowering teams to make quick and effective decisions

Brian Hermann & Sangeeta Bhattacharya
Data Science Evolution:
Collaborate with strategic minds and exchange ideas on transforming roles from structured task-based to innovative and analytical

Allison Barry
Effective Feedback:
Discuss the optimal methods of delivering and eliciting feedback to achieve desired outcomes

Tripti Bhaskaran
Establishing an Effective Change Management Mindset:
Change is inevitable, progress is optional. Learn how to plan for and execute effective change management in your teams

1

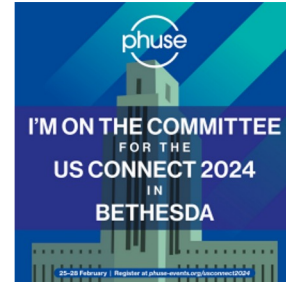

2

3

4

5

6

External Communities

Roche

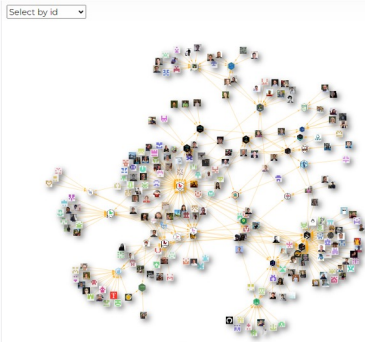

A few examples...

Leadership Skills

- Leadership conference streams, seminar and courses
- Present
- Co-chair one of many working groups/streams

- Collaboration sparks innovation, improves problem solving, bring people closer together and learn from each other
- Building relationships to strengthen and improve your purposeful network

Gain Perspective and Industry Awareness

- Perspective
- Corporate culture
- Technological advancements
- Different ways of working & processes

Doing now what patients need next